Sunny Forecast + Golden Glow

DAVID HARRISON

We haven't seen this much yellow and gold in a long time — they're nudging orange offstage — or the color purple, as today's red turns blue. Bring on the shades of leafy green and the delphinium hues of blue, pink and lavender.

Furniture continues to reference the past two centuries, revisiting and reinterpreting the ideas for today from the Victorians to Christian Liagre. Icons of the past Tony Duquette and Billy Haines are the latest subjects for reproduction.

All the mid-century Modernist designers, both famous and obscure, continue to be introduced and rein-

continued on page 53

FAR LEFT: The Earl Chaise in a golden green velvet is a remembrance from a tufted-Victorian past. By Mitchell Gold + Bob Williams, at Nativa, Hillcrest and Solana Beach. Left to right across page: From the Selected Works of Tony Duquette being reintroduced by Baker, a gold-leaf Biomorphic Mirror also available in silver gilt; Jewel Votive Table Lamp in Duquette's favorite sun-ray motif, cast bronze finished in gold or silver; Paris Snowflake Screen, also available in silver, inspired by 18th-century Chinese patterns; Zebra velvet Elsie Tabouret, an homage to Duquette's mentor, Elsie de Wolfe. Baker available through Seaside Home, Coronado, La Jolla and Rancho Santa Fe; Nettle Creek Interiors, Golden Triangle. Background is a hand-painted custom wall covering, Flower Power by Carolyn Ray, through your designer.