New Masterpiece With Ocean Views

Solana Beach, California

Architecturally significant and stunningly designed custom home just blocks from the beach with whitewater views. Inspired by the linear beauty of Frank Lloyd Wright's masterworks, this beautiful jewel combines inspired form and function with striking artistry and design, using only the finest materials and finishes. At 7,100 square feet, the open and gracious layout offers five en suite bedrooms including attached casita with kitchenette, executive-sized office, detached cabana room, and a game or media room with full wet bar. The heartbeat of the home is the enormous kitchen, dining and living room combination accented by the significant dual-sided stone fireplace, all of which opens entirely to the outdoor living space through 48-ft. retractable doors.
